

SUICIDE'S NOTE ASKS MOTHER TO FORGIVE

Frank C. Tylner's Body Found in Hotel With Letter in Bohemian.

"No one bears the slightest responsibility for my death. My beloved mother, forgive me and be happy; my dear mother, don't be angry with me for having saddened you this way."

The foregoing note, written in Bohemian, was found beside the body of Frank C. Tylner, who shot himself through the head yesterday at the New Varnum Hotel, New Jersey avenue and C street southwest. It was addressed to Mrs. Mary Tylner, 160 Valley street, South Orange, N. J.

Tylner, who was about forty years old, registered at the hotel Tuesday morning from New York city. His death was not discovered until yesterday evening, when the door to his room was broken open. It is believed he shot himself some time yesterday morning. The reason for the shooting is not known. He was, apparently, well to do, and had $47 in his pocket and a bank book showing deposits in a New York bank. The police of the Fifth precinct had some difficulty in getting the note translated, but this was finally done by Dr. J. Kral, of the Department of Commerce.

Playlet Is Presented At Bryan Playgrounds

"Little Men" was given at the Bryan School playgrounds last evening before more than 200 persons. Miss Marie McGill, director of the playground, and Miss Lillian Scott, assistant director, had charge of the play. In the cast were Alvin Bowers, Alice Petar, Elizabeth Duvall, Grace Cardwell, Dorothy Gates, Ella H. Haworth, Harold Bradley, Sidney Saks, Edward O'Brien, and Norman Sweeley. Others taking part in a special program included Edna Wightman and Ralph Wightman, Helen Brest, and Stanley Sweeley.

Norwegian Steamer Now Flies Stars and Stripes

The Norwegian steamer Haugarland has been admitted to American registry and rechristened the Winnebago.

The Haugarland is one of the twelve boats bought recently by the American Trans-Atlantic Company, backed by German capital, for which American registry was sought.

The applications on the other eleven boats will be taken up later.

Adventists to Set Up Own Plant in Philippines

Arrangements are being made by the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, at Takoma Park, for the erection in the Philippine Islands of a printing plant for the purpose of printing, in their native tongue, gospel literature for distribution among the Filipinos.

Treasurer W. T. Knox already has forwarded a check to Elder L. V. Finster, superintendent of missionary operations in the Philippines, for the purchase of the land and of starting work on the building.

The plant will be erected in one of the suburbs of Manila. Elder Finster has sent in many encouraging reports concerning the new accessions to the faith and the requests that are being made for literature.

FASTER MAIL SERVICE FOR RURAL POINTS

Motor Delivery Will Supplant Wagons on Routes Outside of District.

Motor delivery service will supplant the rural delivery wagons in serving patrons on rural routes Nos. 1, 2, 5, 6 and 7, out of Washington, beginning September 1. Postmaster Praeger has announced.

The five routes will be consolidated into routes A and B, starting from the Anacostia station. Route A will cover Good Hope, Capital Heights, Walker's Mill, Forestville, Silver Hill and Camp Springs. Route B will cover Congress Heights, Oxen Hill, Rosecrans, New Glitz, Sillesia, Dixon, Camp Springs and contiguous points.

This will be the first step in providing swifter mail service to the rural communities in line with the plan being worked out by Postmaster Praeger and Secretary Charles J. Columbus, of the Retail Merchants Association.

Postmaster General Burleson has sustained the action of Postmaster Praeger in discontinuing the mail station at the Government Hospital for the Insane.

Hereafter mail will be delivered at that institution in the morning by rural carrier and in the afternoon by a regular city carrier. The station was discontinued because it was held the postal receipts were not large enough to warrant continuance of the office.

Don't Use Soap On Your Hair

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain multifid coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and best soap or anything else at all. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Adv.

Edgar Rice Burroughs' Story Leads Magazine

When, in a previous number of the All-Story Weekly, Barney Custer, of Beatrice, Neb., after rescuing Prince Leopold from the clutches of "The Mad King" of Luthia, left the kingdom in somewhat of a hurry, there remained several little matters of "personal satisfaction" which he lacked the time to settle. But Barney Custer is not the kind of lad who forgets, and in the current number of the magazine, issued today, he returns to the Balkan kingdom to remain during a three-part serial and "square accounts." The story is in the best vein of its author, Edgar Rice Burroughs, who wrote the Tarzan tales, "The Eternal Lover" and "Sweetheart Primeval."

The novelette this week in a western story, "Doctor Jim" by Walter Archer Frost, who has taken a plot entirely new to stories of the "Wild and Woolly."

Heading the short stories is the third of the "Judith Lee, Lip Reader" series by Richard Marsh, entitled "The Tango Tango," as well as a sea story, "Cupid On Ice," by C. William Wood; "Venus Island" by Frank Condon, which details the adventures of Sid Walley, encountered when he started for China to sell kerosene stoves, and "Ann of the Grassland" by Hugh Marshall Irish.

Two Escape Guards At Occoquan Workhouse

Robert Coleman, colored, twenty, eluded the guards at Occoquan early yesterday and is believed to have returned to Washington, having been sent there from the local police court last month. "Major" Lewis, colored, forty-two, is also being sought by the police. He was being taken to Occoquan to serve a short sentence last Saturday and escaped while on the way.
